The visitors were Millie Bentley, our returning RYE student and guest speaker for the evening, her parents Steve and Michelle, Ned Banovich, (guest of Michael F.), and Patrick Fitzgerald from the Entertainment Book. In the last few minutes our number swelled to 22 with the late arrival of - arm in sling- member Geoffrey W., just back from overseas. ( Geoffrey's experiences in Myanmar, and on his new farm in Thailand, will be most interesting to hear.)

Rotary, we give thanks. Amen.

REPORT: 6 March 2018:

Chairperson Jill Savill opened the meeting and welcomed members and guests. Liz B. reported on the gift given to Carol Sice from the Club. Heather E. reported on a visit to Caroline House where she ascertained that second-hand clothing would be accepted, to be used / sold-on to raise funds. She also reported on visiting recuperating member Ian G. She took him a curry and next day Ian reported he had survived the eating! Jill S. has also checked on Ian and will be also feeding him up. Velja U. needed tables etc etc for the Greek Festival and arrangements were made to collect and deliver same.

At 6.45 pm, Patrick Fitzgerald, Account Manager for the Entertainment Book, joined us and briefly explained the procedure of obtaining / selling and using the Entertainment Book. He passed on material for distribution to members. For each book sold the Club will receive a commission which we may direct to any charity we see fit to support. We will speak more of this.

Guest Speaker: Our returning RYE student, Millie Bentley, entertained us with a great overview of her exchange year in Denmark. She explained how proud the 6 million Danes are of their Viking heritage, and that she found them quite a "shy" people, and all young Danes are multilingual in European languages. Millie found that as she went on to reach a good level of mastering the Danish language this made her friends so happy. The language lessons were paid for by Rotary. With Rotary, and also with her Rotary families, she visited many parts of Europe including Germany, Italy, Austria, France and the Netherlands. Some were study tours, others for enjoyment such as attending soccer matches. Festivals, and the associated foods, came in for quite a deal of comment in Millie's talk. She told us of these happy festival occasions and the dishes she liked most. (The milk rice, butter and cinnamon seemed to be the favourite.)

Chairperson Jill thanked Millie for the very fine presentation and overview of her RYE experience. Jill said Millie's talk exemplified so well the reason Rotary Clubs, such as RCNH, supports the program.

Raffle: Millie drew the winning ticket and, guess what, drew mum's ticket!! A happy ending to a great exchange year for Millie, her family and the RCNH.
