2021-22 Membership Fees

The incoming and outgoing Boards jointly resolved to set membership fees at $220 for the new Rotary year.

The fee is unchanged, and actually includes a small subsidy from the Club.

Fees are due on 1 July and may be paid as a lump sum, or by two instalments of $110, the second instalment being payable before 1 January 2022.

Please make your payment as soon as possible to the club's bank account:

STV Windward Bound R100-GYA

A number of North Hobart members were privileged to attend the launch of the Windward Bound's Great Youth Adventure (GYA) on Monday 7 June. The GYA celebrates 100 years of Rotary in Australia with 10 voyages of 10 days each as the Windward Bound makes its way from Hobart to Bundaberg and back.

The GYA was graciously launched by the Governor, Her Excellency Professor Kate Warner AC, as one of her last official duties.

Voyages 2 (Hobart to Melbourne) and 4 (Eden to Sydney) are fully booked, but Rotarians can help spread the word through their contacts in eastern seaboard Rotary Clubs, you guessed it, between Hobart and Bundaberg.

Windward Bound has provided life-changing experiences for many young people, quite a number of whom have gone on to make a career in the maritime industry.

We look forward to welcoming Ship's Mother Jennie Kay as our guest speaker on Tuesday 15 June
